

Crownpoint IHS/ School Based Health Clinic

Mission: To provide accessible, quality health care to the students.

Goal: To partnership and expand health care to the high school students. To foster communication between IHS providers, students, parents and schools.

We provide medical services to students at the school during school hours; a medical provider and a nurse available.

Services Offered:

- * Sports Physical Exams
- * Health education
- * Immunization: shots given with parental consent
- * Referrals as needed
- * Laboratory
- * Prescribe medications
- * Follow-up appointment

How to access to school based clinic at your High School:

1. Talk to your school health technician or schools nurse that you want to be seen.
2. Can be seen without appointment or by appointment
3. Need parental consent signed prior to service.

Reasons to come to School-Based Health Clinic:

- * Acne
- * Pain
- * Pregnancy Testing
- * STD Checks
- * Contraceptive needs
- * Sports Physicals
- * Immunization
- * Eye & Ear Infection
- * Sore Throat
- * Blood Pressure & Blood Sugar Screening
- * Counseling
- * Weight Monitoring
- * Common cold
- * Question/answer about health issue

What we say here, stays here.

Bringing Health Care to Native American Students through School-Based Health Clinic

Advantages of School Based Health Clinics:

- * Immediate access to healthcare
- * Less disruption to school & work time
- * Convenience to parents & students
- * Referrals for additional services
- * Early intervention for healthcare
- * Confidential & friendly services

Department of Community & Preventive Health Services
P.O. Box 358
Crownpoint, NM 87313
Phone: 505-786-5291 ext. 6444 & 6425
Fax: 505-786-6440

Crownpoint Health Care Facility

School-Based Health Clinic

Bringing Healthcare to Native American Students through School-Based Health Clinic serving high schools: Crownpoint, Thoreau, Tse Yi Gai

A partnership between Crownpoint Indian Health Service and McKinley County School District